WHEREAS, World Elder Abuse Awareness Day raises awareness about the millions of older adults who experience elder abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation; and

WHEREAS, as many as 1 in 10 older Americans are abused or neglected each year and only 1 in 14 cases of elder abuse ever comes to the attention of authorities; and

WHEREAS, this recognition will promote a better understanding of abuse and neglect of older adults and the importance of taking action to raise awareness, prevent and address elder abuse; and

WHEREAS, as our population lives longer, we are presented with an opportunity to think about our collective needs and future as a nation; and

WHEREAS, older adults are vital, contributing members of our state and deserve to be treated with dignity and respect; and

WHEREAS, ensuring that proper social structures exist so people can retain community and societal connections and by enabling elders to serve as leaders, mentors and volunteers, reduces the likelihood of abuse; and

WHEREAS, preventing abuse of older adults through maintaining and improving social supports like senior centers, human services and transportation will allow everyone to continue to live as independently as possible and contribute to the life and vibrancy of our communities; and
