

Attorney General Bill McCollum and Florida's Interagency Mortgage Task Force invite you to attend a community forum on the housing crisis – who to trust and where to turn, on Saturday, November 7th from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Sunrise Civic Center.

This forum is open to the public and there's no cost to attend!

If you're facing foreclosure, concerned about how to tell which housing services are legitimate and which are scams, if you need more information about mortgage loan modifications, you must attend this seminar.

Get information from and speak directly with government representatives, local attorneys, and other community leaders. Doors open at 8:30 am and parking is free!

A community forum on the housing crisis – who to trust and where to turn, at the Sunrise Civic Center, Saturday, November 7th from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Space is limited – call today to reserve your seat, toll free 877-385-1621. That's 877-385-1621, or go online to myfloridalegal.com/mortgagefraud.