Attorney General Moody's Week in Review - Aug. 30, 2024

This week, I was thrilled to announce that Polk County Sheriff Grady Judd will be our keynote speaker for the 2024 Human Trafficking Summit.

Sheriff Judd has served as Polk County's sheriff for nearly 20 years, leading several successful sting operations to take down human trafficking rings and rescue victims. In the span of just one year, Sheriff Judd's operations led to the rescue of 58 human trafficking victims.

Known far and wide for his tough stance on crime, Sheriff Judd is a committed partner in our fight to end human trafficking. I can't wait for summit attendees to hear from one of the greatest law enforcement leaders in the nation.

The 2024 Human Trafficking Summit launches Tuesday, Oct. 1, and aims to bring together key stakeholders, law enforcement agencies, survivors, victim-service providers and advocates to collaborate, learn and strengthen efforts to combat this heinous crime.

To learn more and reserve a spot for the event, visit HumanTraffickingSummit.com.

Anyone can help stop human trafficking and save victims. Visit YouCanStopHT.com to learn how to get involved. To report a potential case of human trafficking, immediately contact law enforcement at 1(855) FLA-SAFE.

By partnering with strong law enforcement leaders like Sheriff Judd in our fight to end human trafficking, we are building a Stronger, Safer Florida.
