Florida Attorney General's Office News Release

Attorney General James Uthmeier Charges Career Criminal with Organized Retail Theft

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Attorney General James Uthmeier’s Office of Statewide Prosecution is charging Zatorya Daniels with two counts of organized retail theft.

“This career criminal committed at least 16 thefts, stealing more than $20,000 worth of items in South Florida,” said Attorney General James Uthmeier. “Thanks to the diligent efforts of Florida law enforcement, her crime spree is over, and our Statewide Prosecutors will ensure she stays behind bars where she belongs.”

A law enforcement investigation uncovered that Zatorya Daniels committed at least 16 thefts, mainly from Ulta Beauty and Walgreens stores, stealing 276 items with a combined value of $21,066. Daniels has an extensive criminal history, with over 20 prior theft convictions.

With the help of accomplices, Daniels would walk into stores, place items in her handbag, and then walk out without paying. Daniels committed thefts in St. Lucie, Martin, Palm Beach, and Broward counties.

Daniels is charged with two counts of organized retail theft. Daniels was arrested while in custody for other prior charges. She faces up to 30 years in prison.

The Martin County Sheriff’s Office conducted the investigation.

Assistant Statewide Prosecutor Chris Olowin will handle the case.
