Attorney General Moody's Week In Review - Jan. 17, 2020

Informing you about deceptive tactics used to rip off Floridians is vital in our fight to stop scams and prevent fraud. This week, I launched a webpage dedicated to keeping consumers up-to-date about emerging scams and steps they can take to avoid fraud.

Shortly after taking office, I launched our Consumer Alert program and since then we have issued dozens of warnings covering topics running the gamut from the one-ring phone scam to moving scams and odometer fraud.

Below are just a few of the Consumer Alerts issued since the program's inception:

CONSUMER ALERT: Gift Card Resale Scams Peak in January

CONSUMER ALERT: Imposters Spoof FDLE Phone Numbers

CONSUMER ALERT: Check For Odometer Fraud Before Purchasing a Vehicle

CONSUMER ALERT: One-Ring Phone Scam Designed to Entice Return Calls

CONSUMER ALERT: Avoid Moving Scams

CONSUMER ALERT: Beware of Conversation Hijacking Scams

With this new webpage, Floridians now have a one-stop shop to view the most recent warnings, plus additional tips to avoid fraud. To visit our Consumer Alert webpage, click here.

Often the best way to stop scams is to make sure people have the tools to avoid falling victim, so please take a minute to review the information on this page.

By learning how to protect yourself from scams and where to report fraud, you can help us build a Stronger, Safer Florida.
