Date January 20, 2023

Attorney General Moody's Week In Review - Jan. 20, 2023

This week, I presented Back the Blue Awards to Florida Highway Patrol Troop A for their courageous efforts to rescue a victim from human trafficking. While responding to a highway pursuit, Troopers rescued a young girl being transported across the state by a dangerous criminal.
The trafficker, a known felon and gang member, held the victim captive and forced the minor into sex work and child pornography.

Because of the courageous actions by members of FHP Troop A, this victim is now safe.

These Troopers are heroes and help us toward our goal of stopping human trafficking in Florida.

In addition to the Back the Blue Awards, I also presented Troop A with a Florida Cabinet Resolution, recognizing January as Human Trafficking Prevention Month in Florida.

This resolution commends Florida law enforcement, local governments and communities for working together to combat this atrocious crime.

You too can help us in our mission to end human trafficking in Florida. Visit YouCanStopHT.com to learn how to spot and report suspicious activity.

Working together, we can bring traffickers to justice, rescue victims and build a Stronger, Safer Florida.

In The News

Moody Recognizes FHP Officers for Human Trafficking Rescue, Florida’s Voice

Read More

Northwest Florida troopers receive recognition for rescuing human trafficking victim, ABC 3 WEAR-TV

Read More

How to use gift cards wisely so they don’t become worthless, NBC 8 Tampa

Read More

AG Moody: New study shows children under 14 dying at fastest rate due to fentanyl, ABC 7 Sarasota

Read More

Report: Children under 14 dying from fentanyl poisoning at faster rate than any other age group, Lafourche Gazette

Read More

Protecting Floridians

Attorney General Moody's Statewide Prosecutors Secure 30-Year Prison Sentences for Members of Massive Identity Theft Scheme

Attorney General Ashley Moody’s Office of Statewide Prosecution secured 30-year prison sentences for members of a massive identity theft scheme. The lengthy sentences are a result of three individuals, Carnessa Rouse, Gregory Engram and Samishia Askew stealing the identities of more than 120 individuals—most victims being above the age of 65. Using the victims' identities, the defendants opened fraudulent credit card accounts to fund luxurious lifestyles.

Attorney General Ashley Moody said, “We secured lengthy prison sentences for three defendants for their roles in a massive identity theft scheme spanning at least seven counties in Florida. These fraudsters victimized more than 120 Floridians—most of them seniors—by stealing and misusing ill-gotten personal information to open fraudulent credit card accounts. They then used the credit accounts to fund their extravagant lifestyles. Now their lifestyles will be much more modest in prison thanks to the great work of my Statewide Prosecutors and our hardworking law enforcement partners.” Read More

Events

This week, Attorney General Ashley Moody presented Back the Blue Awards to Florida Highway Patrol Troop A for recovering a human trafficking victim. Attorney General Moody also presented Troop A with a Florida Cabinet Resolution recognizing January as Human Trafficking Prevention Month, during a meeting of the Governor and Florida Cabinet.

