960.194, F.S. Chapter 2017-155 960.03(3)(f), F.S.	Yes No	Vol. 43/128 N/A	N/A	This change expands the definition of Crime for the purposes of the Florida Crimes Compensation Act to include Emergency Responders killed in the line of duty while answering a call for service as a result of a felony or misdemeanor. No rulemaking is necessary as the change is definitional only and all required substantive changes are addressed in the rulemaking which will implement section 960.194, F.S.
Chapter 2017-155 960.03(14)(e), F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	This change expands the definition of Victim for the purposes of the Florida Crimes Compensation Act to include Emergency Responders killed in the line of duty while answering a call for service. No rulemaking is necessary as the change is definitional only and all required substantive changes are addressed in the rulemaking which will implement section 960.194, F.S.
Chapter 2017-155 960.16, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	This change states that the right of subrogation under the Florida Crimes Compensation Act does not extend to the Emergency Responder's Death Benefit under the newly created 960.194, F.S. No rulemaking is necessary as the statutory language is clear on its face and all required substantive changes are addressed in the rulemaking which will implement section 960.194, F.S.
Chapter 2017-190 501.212(4)(b), (c), F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	Consistent with current exemptions for banks and savings and loan associations, this change provides that the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act does not apply to state-chartered and federally-chartered credit-unions. No rulemaking is necessary as the change is clear on its face.
Chapter 2017-155 501.203(3), .204(2), F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	This change amends dates from July 1, 2015 to July 1, 2017 in order to keep the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act consistent with applicable federal law and rules. No rulemaking is necessary as the statutory language is clear on its face.
